Police release photo of suspect in indecent exposure incidents

Howard County police are releasing a photo today of a man who reportedly exposed himself at two motels in North Laurel.

In the first incident on May 1, at approximately 1:07 a.m., the hotel clerk at the Super 8 Motel in the 9900 block of Washington Boulevard observed an unknown suspect exposing himself. The suspect was described as a black male between 20-30 years old, wearing gray sweatpants, a white T-shirt and a black bandana or hat.

In the second incident, on May 4, at 2:50 a.m., at the Turf Motel in the 9800 block of Washington Boulevard, an unknown suspect stood outside the window and exposed himself to an employee. He was described as a black male, approximately 30 years old, wearing a gray suit and a Redskins hat.

The image below of the suspect was captured on a motel surveillance camera.

Police are asking anyone with information to call 410-313-STOP. Callers may remain anonymous. Citizens may also provide anonymous tips through the free smartphone app, "iWatchHowardCounty."
